Start Things Right –

How to start a Jewellery Business the Legal Way

It is not difficult to start a jewellery business, but it has to be done correctly and legally to last. In our upcoming webinar, Ms. Rendy Ng G.G., A.J.P., ISA, B.A., LL.B.(Hons), LL.M., EMBA (a gemologist, appraiser and qualified lawyer in Hong Kong) will share with us her extensive experience in handling legal matters for jewellery start-ups, diamond suppliers and international luxury brands. She will open for discussion legal topics that pertain particularly to jewellery designers, start-ups and businesses that aim to last:

- How to start a jewellery business?
- What are my duties as a director?
- How to maintain healthy friendships with your business partners?
- How to handle employment issues?
- Is it legal to enforce no-pay leaves?
- How can I protect my designs and intellectual property?
- How does the Trade Description Ordinance apply to my business?
- What should I do to protect my products during consignment?
- How can I make sure I get paid for my products?
- What are the pitfalls of selling jewellery online?
- How can I handle clients' information in a legally proper way?

Attendees are welcomed to bring in your own legal questions regarding your own business / business ideas to share with the speaker / other attendees.
